ORDER

14 CV 3674 (VB)

On September 6, 2019, former counsel for plaintiff, Zarin & Steinmetz, filed on the Court's Electronic Case Filing ("ECF") system a redacted Notice of Petition to Enforce Charging Lien and a Petition to Enforce Charging Lien. (Doc. #508). In its notice, Zarin & Steinmetz requested the Court adjudge that Zarin & Steinmetz has a charging lien against the settlement proceeds in The Plumbing Supply, LLC v. ExxonMobil Corporation, et al., 14 CV 3674. (See Sealed Doc. #423, Ex. B).

On February 21, 2020, all parties to the lawsuit—Faucet Works, Groundwater and Environmental Services, Inc. ("GES"), CPD NY Energy Corp. ("CPD"), Cumberland Farms,

Inc. (“CFI”), ExxonMobil Oil Corporation, ExxonMobil Corporation, and ConocoPhillips Company—filed a stipulation of voluntary dismissal terminating this action. (Doc. #523).

Although Faucet Works, CPD, CFI and GES have previously stated that they do not intend to contest the petition (Doc. #513), the Court directs counsel for these parties to submit a joint letter with Zarin & Steinmetz by March 10, 2020, confirming their position with respect to the petition, at which time the Court will issue the proposed order. (Doc. #509). If the parties seek to contest the petition for the charging lien, they shall submit a proposed briefing schedule in their joint letter.
